PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

17
18 On November 22, 2013, the Court held a hearing regarding Plaintiff's Application
19 for Preliminary Injunction. The parties appeared through their counsel of record. In 20 accordance with the Court's Order Granting Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary 21 Injunction, issued concurrently herewith, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

23 (1) Defendants Robert Porter, Gregory Stirling, and Douglass Williamson, and 24 SpotGenie Partners, LCC, and their agents, employees, representatives, and 25 those acting in concert with them are enjoined from:
26 a. Any further use or disclosure of Extreme Reach's Customer List;
27 b. Soliciting any of the Extreme Reach customers identified in any portion
28 of Extreme Reach's Customer List accessed by Robert Porter, Gregory

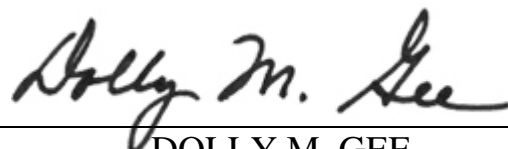

1 Stirling, and Douglass Williamson during the last week of their
2 employment with Extreme Reach through the use of Customer List
3 information;

4 c. Performing services for any customers already solicited arising out of 5 their use of the Customer List.

6 (2) For purposes of this Order, Extreme Reach's Customer List includes 7 information regarding the identities of Extreme Reach's customers, the 8 identities of contact persons at those customers, and information regarding 9 the rates customers were offered by Extreme Reach or paid to Extreme
10 Reach, and specifically includes the following: sales reports, sales prospect 11 reports, revenue reports, rate cards, and any reports derived from any 12 Extreme Reach database containing customer rate and/or contact
13 information.
